Key Conditions

Terms & Conditions

1. Introduction

- 1.1. These Terms and Conditions (“Terms”) govern the Skyriss Asia Early Access Program (the “Program” or “Promotion”) offered by Skyriss.
- 1.2. By participating in this Program, the client (“Client”, “you”) agrees to be bound by these Terms, along with all applicable account terms, policies, and risk disclosures.

2. Definitions

- 2.1. Real Balance: Funds deposited by the Client and any resulting profits.
- 2.2. Margin Support (Credit): Non-withdrawable trading support provided by Skyriss to enhance trading capacity. This credit cannot be withdrawn or transferred.
- 2.3. Equity: The sum of Real Balance and Margin Support, including any floating profit or loss.

3. Eligibility

- 3.1. To participate, the Client must:
 - Be of legal age in their jurisdiction
 - Complete account registration and verification (KYC)
 - Be approved by Skyriss to trade
 - Meet all internal compliance requirements
- 3.2. The Program is available only in selected jurisdictions across Asia and may be restricted based on regulatory requirements.
- 3.3. Each Client is eligible under one verified account only.

4. Participation Requirements

- To qualify for the Program, Clients must:
- Open a trading account with Skyriss
 - Make a minimum deposit of USD 100
 - Accept these Terms

5. Margin Support Structure

5.1. Eligible Clients may receive up to 20% additional tradeable margin support based on their deposit amount.

5.2. Margin Support:

- Is non-withdrawable
- Cannot be transferred or exchanged
- Can only be used to support trading positions

5.3. The maximum Margin Support amount may be capped at Skyriss's discretion.

6. Validity Period

6.1. Margin Support is valid for a limited period from the date of deposit (e.g. 30 calendar days).

6.2. Any unused Margin Support will expire automatically at the end of the validity period.

6.3. Skyriss is not obligated to notify Clients prior to expiry.

7. Margin Support Conditions

7.1. Margin Support cannot be used independently of Real Balance.

7.2. If the Client's Real Balance reaches zero:

- Margin Support will be removed
- Open positions may be subject to liquidation

7.3. Margin Support may not be considered for certain margin calculations, including hedged positions.

7.4. Clients are responsible for maintaining sufficient margin at all times.

8. Withdrawal Conditions

8.1. Margin Support is not withdrawable under any circumstances.

8.2. If a withdrawal is made:

- Margin Support may be reduced proportionally

8.3. Any reduction or removal of Margin Support may impact open positions.

9. Disqualification & Abuse

9.1. Skyriss reserves the right to disqualify Clients who:

- Engage in abusive trading strategies
- Use multiple accounts
- Attempt to exploit the Program
- Provide false or misleading information

9.2. Prohibited activities include (but are not limited to):

- Arbitrage strategies
- Hedging across accounts
- Latency exploitation
- Bonus abuse patterns

9.3. Skyriss may remove Margin Support or terminate participation at its discretion.

10. General Conditions

- 10.1. This Program may not be combined with other promotions unless stated.
- 10.2. Skyriss reserves the right to modify, suspend, or terminate this Program at any time.
- 10.3. Participation does not guarantee profitability or reduce trading risk.
- 10.4. Clients are responsible for any applicable taxes.

11. Risk Disclosure

Trading Forex and CFDs carries a high level of risk and may not be suitable for all investors. Clients should only trade with funds they can afford to lose.
